

Joseph B. Haynes

Barney Haynes is a retired partner in the Atlanta office of King & Spalding where he was a member of the Business Litigation Practice Group, concentrating in civil litigation. He joined King & Spalding in 1969 and was elected a partner in 1975.

Mr. Haynes has extensive experience in commercial litigation, and he has represented numerous clients of the firm in complex cases in state and federal courts and arbitrations, both in Georgia and in other parts of the country. He has broad litigation and trial experience in a variety of civil matters, including professional liability, antitrust, commercial contract litigation, franchisor-franchisee relationships, securities, internal corporate investigations, class action lawsuits, derivative shareholder suits, civil RICO claims, banking litigation construction contract suits corporate espionage and competitive intelligence.

Mr. Haynes has extensive experience in the representation of accounting firms in professional malpractice and securities litigation. He has represented some of the country's major accounting firms, and other professionals in professional liability actions, securities cases, and complex litigation.

Mr. Haynes was elected to the American College of Trial Lawyers in 1992. He is a member of the State Bar of Georgia and the State Bar of New York.

Mr. Haynes graduated, cum laude, from the University of the South in 1962 where he was Phi Beta Kappa and was the recipient of Algernon Sidney Sullivan Award. He was a Root Tilden Scholar at New York University School of Law where he graduated in 1965 and was awarded the Benjamin F. Butler Prize for Excellence. He was a Judge Advocate General and a Captain in the United States Air Force from 1966 through 1969 where he concentrated on court-martials as a trial judge advocate. Chambers USA recently selected Mr. Haynes as a leading lawyer in his practice. He has been selected also for The Best Lawyers in America and Georgia Super Lawyers.

He is a Chairman of The Board of Trustees of the Jesse Parker Williams Foundation. He has served as an elder of the Peachtree Presbyterian Church, chairman of the Board of Deacons of the Peachtree Presbyterian Church, trustee of the Atlanta Cancer Society, member of the Public Affairs Committee of Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, a trustee of Christ School and a past president of the Sewanee Club of Atlanta.